

CONFLICT AND INTERPRETATION: RICOEUR AND THE RETURN OF RELIGION

12.12.2018. New Location: Catholic Theology Faculty, Seminar Room 3
Groundlevel/EG. Schenkenstraße 8-10, Vienna 1010.

WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Morning session – Enigmas of Flesh and Incarnation

Moderator: Alvis

9:30- 9:45 – Introduction by Jason Alvis

9:45 –10:35 – Adam Graves, Freedom & the Flesh: A Hermeneutic of the Will (Response by Vodigar)

10:35-11:25 – Ludger Hagedorn, "Impermeable to Reflection and Inaccessible to Human Mastery: " The Enigma of Flesh and Sexuality in Ricoeur's Thought (Response by Koci)

11:30-12:45 -- Lunch break [Martin Koci will reserve a table – Giorgina]

Afternoon session I -- Seizures of Interpretation and Religion

Moderator: Koci

13:00-13:50 -- Carl Raschke, Paul Ricoeur's Interpretation Theory and the Advent of Deconstruction in Philosophy and Theology: An Historical Footnote (Response by Trebeznik)

13:50-14:40 -- Michael Staudigl, On Seizing the Source: Toward a Phenomenology of Religious Violence (Response by Klun)

14:40-15:00 -- coffee break ---

Afternoon session II – Symbols of Conflict and Pathology

Moderator: Klun

15:00-15:50 -- Jason Alvis, Ricoeur on Violence and Religion: Or, Violence Gives Rise to Thought (Response by Pirc)

15:50-16:40 -- Gašper Pirc, Ricoeur and Critical Hermeneutics: Questioning Social Recognition, Violence, and Social Pathology (Response by Graves)

16:40-17:00 -- coffee break ---

Evening session – Fallibilities of Violence and Zeal

Moderator: Trebeznik

17:00-17:50 -- Ruth Rebecca Tietjen, Being Fallible, Becoming Violent. Thoughts on Ricoeur (Response by Staudigl)

17:50-18:00 – Final Discussion and Conclusion (Alvis and Staudigl)

List of participants:

Adam Graves (Metro State University Denver USA)

Janez Vodičar (University of Ljubljana)

Ludger Hagedorn (Institute for Human Sciences, Vienna)

Carl Raschke (University of Denver, USA)

Ruth Rebecca Tietjen (University of Vienna)

Branko Klun (University of Ljubljana)

Martin Koci (University of Vienna)

Jason Alvis (University of Vienna)

Luka Trebežnik (University of Ljubljana)

Michael Staudigl (University of Vienna)

Gašper Pirc (University of Ljubljana)

Katerina Koci (Institute for Human Sciences, Vienna)